PROTECTIVE ORDER - 1

Law Offices of Ressler & Tesh
Penthouse Suite
821 Second Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104
(206) 388-0333

1 1. Plaintiffs and Defendants, through their respective counsel and 2 subject to the Court's approval, hereby stipulate and agree as follows, pursuant to 3 Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c), with respect to the disclosure of Confidential Information.
4

5 2. The parties to this action submit this Stipulation and Protective Order 6 (hereinafter "Order") solely for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of 7 documents and information between the parties in this action without involving 8 the Court unnecessarily in the process. Nothing in this Order nor the production of 9 any information or documents under the terms of this Order nor any proceedings 10 pursuant to this Order shall be deemed to have the effect of an admission or 11 waiver by any party or of altering the confidentiality or non-confidentiality of any 12 such document or information or altering any existing obligation of any party or 13 absence thereof.
14

15 PROCEDURES REGARDING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
16

17 3. The parties define "Oregon and Washington case records" as all 18 documents, which are in the custody of Plaintiffs or any other documents obtained 19 by any party in this action from Oregon Department of Human Services ("Oregon 20 DHS) and Washington Department of Social and Human Services ("Washington 21 DSHS"), relating to Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS investigations, custody, 22 and placement of Plaintiffs, including, but not limited to, documents relating to all 23

1 Plaintiffs' institutional, foster family, and kin placements; foster family's licensing 2 files; education, mental health, and health services; and court proceedings. These 3 "case records" shall also include the files and documents of any child who has 4 been or is in Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS custody. The term "document" 5 and "documents" include any written, printed, typed, recorded, electronic or 6 graphic material of every type and description, and each and every thing from 7 which information can be processed or transcribed, including computer readable 8 storage material. Documents include, but are not limited to, the following: records, 9 handwritten notes, reports, agreements, memoranda, email communications and 10 photographs.
12

13 4. The parties acknowledge that Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS 14 case records and the files and documents of any child who has been or is in their 15 custody contain sensitive information that is generally protected from disclosure 16 pursuant to federal and state law, including without limitation: 17

18 (a) Information that identifies by name or address, or could reasonably 19 lead to the disclosure of the name or address of any applicant for or recipient of 20 child welfare, foster care, or adoption assistance services [45 C.F.R. 1355.21]; 21

22 (b) The names and addresses of applicants for and recipients of child 23 welfare, foster care, or adoption assistance services and the amounts of financial

1 assistance provided to them [45 C.F.R. 205.50];

2 (c) Information related to the social and economic conditions or 3 circumstances of particular individual applicants for or recipients of child welfare, 4 foster care, or adoption services [45 C.F.R. 205.50]; 5

6 (d) Agency evaluations of information about particular individual 7 applicants for or recipients of child welfare, foster care, or adoption assistance 8 services [45 C.F.R. 205.50]; 9

10 (e) Medical data concerning particular individual applicants for or 11 recipients of child welfare, foster care, or adoption assistance services [45 C.F.R.
12 205.50]; and 13

14 (f) All records of child abuse reports and all information obtained in 15 investigating reports of child abuse and neglect [45 C.F.R. 1340.14].
16

17 The parties also acknowledge that all files or documents of any child who 18 has been or is in Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS custody shall come within 19 the provisions and protections of this Order.

20 5. Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS case records shall be deemed to 21 be Confidential Information pursuant to this Order and plaintiffs shall label them 22 as Confidential upon production.
23

1 6. A party may also label as “Confidential” any discovery that is served 2 or produced in this litigation (including subpoenas and deposition testimony), if 3 the marking party believes that the information contained in such discovery 4 qualifies for protection under standards developed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) or 5 state or federal law, including the right to privacy. Such information shall be 6 deemed to be Confidential Information pursuant to this Order.
7

8 The fact that a document is stamped “Confidential” by one party shall not 9 be construed as an admission by any other party that such document is 10 confidential, nor shall it limit or preclude the right of any party to object to the 11 “Confidential” designation and to file any appropriate motion(s) to determine the 12 propriety of such designation. If the producing party inadvertently fails to stamp 13 or otherwise appropriately designate or list certain documents, material, or 14 information as “Confidential” upon their production or disclosure, such 15 inadvertent failure to designate shall not constitute nor be deemed a waiver of a 16 subsequent claim of protected treatment under this Order.
17
18

19 Any party may contest a designation of “Confidential” by serving a written 20 objection (by letter to the designating Party) to the Confidentiality designation at 21 any time up to the discovery cut-off including any continuance thereof. Upon 22 service of such objection, the Parties shall make a good faith effort to resolve the 23

1 issue informally. If that effort fails, the confidentiality designation shall expire 2 unless, within three weeks of service of the objection, or such additional time as 3 may be agreed upon the Parties, the Party seeking confidentiality applies to the 4 Court or Magistrate Judge for an order designating the document or information 5 confidential. If such an application is made, the document or other information 6 marked "Confidential" which is in dispute shall remain "Confidential," as the case 7 may be, until the dispute is resolved by and between or among the parties and so 8 confirmed in writing or, if necessary, until order of the Court or any Magistrate 9 Judge. On any such application, the proponent of confidentiality shall have the 10 burden of showing, by a preponderance of the evidence, good cause for the 11 claimed protection.
12

14 7. Confidential Information shall only be used for purpose of 15 prosecution, defense, or settlement of this action, and for no other purpose.
16

17 8. Confidential Information may be disclosed or made available only to 18 the Court; to counsel for a party (including paralegal, clerical, and secretarial staff 19 employed by such counsel), and to the "qualified persons" designated below: 20

21 (a) a party, or an officer, director, agent, or employee of a party deemed 22 necessary by counsel to aid in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of this 23 action;

1 (b) experts or consultants (and their clerical staff) consulted and/or 2 retained by such counsel to assist in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of this 3 action;

4
5 (c) court reporter(s) employed in this action; or 6 (d) a witness at any deposition or court proceeding in this action.

7

8 9. Any person other than a party, counsel for a party, or a direct 9 employee of such counsel, having access to information pursuant to paragraph 8, 10 shall be provided a copy of this Order by the party providing access to the 11 information. Such persons shall be bound by this Order and shall not disclose the 12 information to any persons not authorized under state or federal law or order of 13 this Court to receive such information. Furthermore, any such person shall sign a 14 copy of the Statement of Confidentiality attached hereto and made a part hereof as 15 Exhibit A, prior to being furnished with any such information.
16

17 10. All documents meeting the definition of Confidential Information that 18 are produced in this case shall be clearly labeled or stamped "Confidential" prior 19 to production.
20

21 11. In connection with proceedings in this action, testimony taken at a 22 deposition, hearing, or trial relating to Confidential Information or disclosing the 23

1 identities of plaintiffs, any other child who has been or is in Oregon DHS and 2 Washington DSHS custody, or any individual not a named party to this action, 3 may be designated as Confidential Information by making a statement to that 4 effect on the record at the deposition or other proceeding. Arrangements shall be 5 made with the court reporter taking and transcribing such proceeding to label 6 confidential portions of the transcript as containing Confidential Information.
7

8 12. Any party's inadvertent or unintentional failure to designate protected 9 information shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of that party's claim 10 of confidentiality, as long as the disclosing party notifies all parties in writing that 11 such protected information constitutes confidential information within seven days 12 after learning that the protected information was inadvertently or unintentionally 13 produced without an appropriate confidentiality designation.
14

15 13. The terms of this Stipulated Protective Order apply, without limitation 16 to all documents and information exchanged between the parties in the course of 17 this litigation, whether or not such documents and/or information were exchanged 18 prior to the entry of this Order and/or were designated as "Confidential." This 19 provision allows a party to designate a previously produced document as 20 "Confidential."

9 15. Hard copies shall be submitted to the parties in accordance with Local 10 Rule IA 10-5 and local e-filing instructions. Parties and nonparties shall also 11 comply with all requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2 with regard to all documents 12 that are filed with the court.

14 16. In all documents that are made part of the public record (unless under 15 seal) and in all references in open court, when referring to individual children or 16 families, or other persons whose names or other identifying information is 17 contained in Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS case records, the parties shall 18 use initials agreed to by the parties.
19

20 17. This Order does not affect access to Confidential Information by 21 individuals, including employees of Oregon DHS, Washington DSHS, Clark 22 County or the State of Nevada, who are otherwise authorized under state law or

2
3 18. The parties acknowledge that Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS
4 information and material, which are the subject of this Confidentiality Order, 5 contain sensitive information that is generally protected from disclosure by 6 Oregon and Washington statutes and administrative codes, and that all such 7 information should be and hereby is deemed confidential and may not be 8 discussed with or disclosed, either orally or in writing, to anyone, including but 9 not limited to the news or publication media in any format, except in the strict 10 accordance with the provisions of this Confidentiality Order. This Order does not 11 apply to policies and procedures of Oregon DHS and Washington DSHS which 12 are otherwise deemed public record. This Order shall be without prejudice to the 13 right of the parties (i) to bring before the Court at any time the question of whether 14 any particular document or information is, in fact, Confidential or whether its use 15 should be restricted in any manner whatsoever; or (ii) to present a motion to the 16 Court for a separate protective order as to any particular document or information, 17 including restrictions differing from those specified herein. This Order shall not be 18 deemed to prejudice the parties in any way in any future application for 19 modification of this Order.
20

22
23 19. This Order shall be without prejudice to any party to claim that a

1 document that a party marked as containing Confidential Information is also 2 protected by the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or any other 3 privilege or limitation recognized under state or federal law. Determinations of 4 confidentiality and privilege are separate, and nothing in this Order constitutes a 5 waiver of privilege.
6

7 20. At the conclusion of this case, all discovery material made 8 confidential pursuant to this Order, or another court order, all documents 9 reflecting such material, and all copies thereof (including without limitation, 10 copies provided to testifying or consulting experts or consultants) shall be 11 returned to the person or party that produced the confidential material, or, in the 12 alternative, destroyed and certified in writing to the person or party that produced 13 the confidential material to have been destroyed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 14 counsel for the parties may retain, until the expiration of the statute of limitations 15 applicable to attorney malpractice, including any period for which the statute may 16 be tolled, one copy of the named plaintiffs' case records, including the 17 confidential material contained therein, and one copy of any attorney work 18 product reflecting Confidential Information, provided that such case records and 19 attorney work product is prominently marked with the statement:

1 CONFIDENTIAL

2 This envelope contains documents that are subject to a Protective 3 Order entered by the Court in this action governing the use of 4 confidential discovery material.

5 or some substantially similar statement. The provisions of this Order shall 6 continue to apply to all confidential materials not returned or destroyed in 7 accordance with this paragraph. After the expiration of the statute of limitations 8 applicable to attorney malpractice, including any period for which the statute may 9 be tolled, plaintiffs' counsel shall return or destroy all confidential case records in 10 accordance with the terms of this paragraph.
